Make'hai is a new refreshing Italian eatery to satisfy your curiosity about rich southern-Italian flavours.

Three long-lost childhood friends from Naples (Italy), brought together by fate in London decided to start this new adventure. To share with you their love for food and their passion for best quality southern-Italian products.

Our menu is built on our passion for freshness!

That's why we import our products daily from our vegetables suppliers, butchers and fishmongers.

All items will be presented on a single bill. All prices include VAT.
We may need to change or withdraw this menu from time to time due to local events.
We aren't responsible for lost or stolen items.
